FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kerrville's 4th on the River to be held July 4, 2014 at Lehmann & Monroe Park

Kerrville, Texas (June 4, 2014) – July 4th is one month away and there is a lot of great projects happening in Louise Hays Park which is home to the annual event. Rest assured that the celebration will still be happening despite park construction. Due to the multiple exciting projects such as the River Trail and Park Improvements in Louise Hays Park, the event is temporarily relocating to the adjacent Lehmann & Monroe Park. The 2014 July 4th celebration, Kerrville's 4th on the River will be held on Friday, July 4th.

Delicious food booths, vendors, and children's activities will open at 2:00 p.m. A free concert will begin in the afternoon with Starlings, TN at 4:00 p.m., Someone Like You featuring Josh Murley at 5:15 p.m., Prophets and Outlaws at 6:30 p.m. and Kerrville's own Robert Earl Keen as the headliner at 8:00 p.m. Don't miss the largest fireworks display in the Hill Country beginning at 9:30 p.m., sponsored by Mamacita's.

Please visit <http://kerrvilles4th.org> for event information. Applications for vendors are currently being accepted. The vendor application can be found at <http://kerrvilles4th.info> and interested persons can contact Keri Wilt at keri@grapejuiceonline.com.

There is no admission fee associated with this spectacular event. Food, beer and non-alcoholic drinks will be available for purchase. No personal coolers / ice chests or glass containers will be permitted. Smoking is prohibited in all parks under City ordinance.

For additional information contact Ashlea Boyle, Special Projects Manager at 830.258.1153 via e-mail to ashlea.boyle@kerrvilletx.gov or visit the city's website at www.kerrvilletx.gov.
